

Mass. Law Reform Institute's CORI Project
will present a free

CORI Training

at

The Plymouth Career Center
36 Cordage Park Circle, Suite 200
Plymouth , MA

May 17, 2006 (Wednesday)

10:00 to 12:00 pm

- What is Criminal Offender Record Information & Who has Access to it?
- How Do You Read and Understand a CORI Report?
- What are the Screening Rules that Apply to People with CORI Seeking Employment? What about Subsidized and Public Housing?
- How can People who "Have CORI" Get it Sealed or otherwise Help Themselves?

To sign up: Call Jacquie McLellan, or Bob Mueller at 508-732-5300, giving your organization name, address, phone number and email address. Space is limited. Please sign up as soon as possible. For further questions, you may contact Lena B. Wilson at MLRI at 617-357-0700 x319.

This training is designed for people who have CORI and for people from the "helping professions" who try to help people who have CORI, but everyone is welcome.

This CORI training event is part of a series of trainings which the CORI Project has presented or hopes to present (primarily for people who have CORI and those who are trying to help them) at different locations around Massachusetts in 2006.